This blend of 40% Cabernet Franc, 40% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon is richly textured, dark, ripe and succulent. The 2013 Friuli Colli Orientali Montsclapade is a big-boned wine that certainly shows its 30 months in barrique, with very soft tannins and notes of spice and savory smoke that come forth with abundance. It's not overly exciting, but nonetheless, this blend carries itself well. Pair it with some wood-fired hamburgers. Only 3,000 bottles were made.
