Here's a terrific value from Alessio Dorigo. Fresh and elegantly fragrant, the 2019 Friuli Colli Orientali Friulano offers a clean and compact bouquet with pear, quince and Golden Delicious apple. Those neutral fruit aromas are enhanced by a light shadings of wild sage, crushed mineral and white rose. This is a complete and easy portrait of the Friulano grape executed with simple lines and balanced acidity. You might want to pair this with a crabmeat pasta, such as the local tagliolini alla granceola dish. Production is 7,000 bottles.
